

A large crowd that attended Founding President Sam Nujoma's rally in Windhoek last Sunday. Photos by Levi Upula.

Nyamu confirms hibernators

SPYL vindicated. Nyamu's notes working

By Asser Ntinda

The Secretary General of the Rally for Democracy and Progress, RDP, has confirmed that his party has agents at State House who "are there on a mission" and should therefore not be called hibernators.

Jesaya Nyamu, who was expelled from SWAPO Party a few years ago for subversive activities, told an RDP rally last weekend that his party members should "not worry" because RDP was represented everywhere in government, at the police, state security and State House.

Nyamu said that because of these "connections," SWAPO Party would not be able to "cheat" as it had "done in the past," adding that his party was "well represented" at all government institutions, including the Police, State Security and State

Jesaya Nyamu

House itself.

"RDP is represented everywhere you can think of,"

Nyamu said at Outapi last Sunday. "We are at State House. We are in the Police. We are at State Security. They are calling our representatives at State House 'hibernators' but those people are on a mission. We know what we are doing. SWAPO cannot cheat easily this time around."

Nyamu did not mention the names of RDP "representatives" at those institutions. However, his public announcement comes long after SWAPO Party Youth League, SPYL, had made serious recommendations to the SWAPO Party leadership about hibernators at those institutions. SPYL has also submitted the names of those hibernators.

"We are vindicated," said one SPYL Central Committee member. "We have long told the leadership about those hibernators. We were told we did not have evidence. But we did have evidence. These people meet at RDP's strategic meetings. We are being cheated. It is good that Nyamu has told us the truth."

"We told the then leadership that there were people within SWAPO Party who were planning to form a rival party. Our reports were dismissed. It did

Cont on page 2

Founding President tells youth to vote SWAPO Party

By Levi Upula

Founding President Dr. Sam Nujoma has urged Namibians, especially the born-frees, to vote for SWAPO Party and its President Hifikepunye Pohamba this month. Addressing a huge crowd in Windhoek last weekend, the Founding President said that SWAPO Party was the only party that had the capacity to eradicate poverty, diseases and ignorance and implement Vision 2030.

Cont on page 2

'You can trap them like this,' says Nangolo

By Anna Nakambale

SWAPO Party District Coordinator in Walvis Bay Cde Johannes Nangolo together with the party Branch Coordinator, Cde Hafeni Ndemula organized a fundraising braai and a SWAPO Party rally last weekend where they taught SWAPO Party members how to vote, especially the born frees, in the upcoming National Assembly and Presidential elections.

Cont on page 6

RDP supporters threatening SWAPO Party members at the Horse Shoe Market in Katutura last weekend. Violence nearly broke out when RDP members tried to put up the campaign placards at the Horse Shoe Market against the will of the owners of the market. Police had to be called in to diffuse the situation. An RDP campaign placard was later removed. Photo by Asser Ntinda.