

Hidipo shows true colours as an agent of neo-colonialism

By: Concerned patriot

By conferring with sell-outs of the African liberation struggle like Unita and Renamo, Hidipo Hamutenya has confirmed what we have known all along that he is a sell-out of the Namibian liberation struggle and an agent of neo-colonialism.

Hidipo met his fellow-sell-outs in Germany in December 2009 in a conference organised by the Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, an organisation known to be a front for German push for neo-colonialism, especially in Namibia. Before last November elections in Namibia, he accused former liberation movements of winning elections through rigging. This statement further shows that he himself has never been a freedom fighter.

Now he says he sat together with people like Unita and Renamo because he has reconciled with them. How can you reconcile with your own kind?

His track record of betrayal of the Namibian liberation struggle speaks for itself.

After independence he waged a relentless character assassination campaign against the icon of the Namibian liberation struggle, Sam Nujoma, which further demonstrates that he has no respect for national liberation, and has never been a freedom fighter.

Hidipo Hamutenya

All those acts of betrayal he committed with the sole aim of becoming Namibia's President and install a neo-colonial government for the benefit of his masters, the former colonial powers, for a few dollars more. Therefore, his sitting together with traitors of the liberation of the African colonised peoples is no accident or surprise: he belongs there.

The rise of the national liberation movement all over the world, like the Namibian liberation movement headed by Swapo, and the resultant liberation of colonies, has forced imperialism to resort to a new way of colonising the peoples, called neo-colonialism.

Jonas Savimbi

Afonso Dhlakama

Imperialism reaps super huge profits from cheap labour and raw materials in underdeveloped nations. To achieve that aim it recruits puppets to govern newly independent colonies on their behalf and in their interest for a few dollars that he is to have all of U.S. combat troops out of Iraq by the end of this August.

Obama said he promised to end the unpopular war as a presidential candidate in 2008, and that is what he is doing as president.

"We will have all of our more.

Imperialism does not want to deal with newly independent colonies as equal, self-governing, business partners. It wants to bite off more than its fair share of profit that comes with foreign investment.

The imperialist countries should, count their blessings and follow the example of Dirk Mudge who applauded Swapo for adhering to the Constitution, and stop interfering in the politics of the country.

The opposition parties in this country, and the well-meaning supporters of the RDP, must see Hidipo for what he really is and stop being used as puppies in his grant schemes. The interest of Namibia as an independent country is way much bigger than narrow party interests.

Hands off ECN

Actually, I want to comment on remarks by DTA's Secretary General MC Henry Venaani.

Venaani castigating the ECN of Namibia said that, his party was not going to participate in the forthcoming Okahandja By-Election, because such Election was still going to be supervised by the same ECN, which they have taken to court, for so-called irregularities during last November Election.

If Venaani was a person who could tell the truth, nothing else but the truth; He would have said, "DTA was not going to take part in the Okahandja Election for fear of being defeated again by SWAPO.

Is that not the same tactics they played during the Hainyeko constituent Election of last year?

Therefore, Venaani, who is still licking his wounds after the humiliating defeat DTA, has suffered at the hands of SWAPO during the last November Elections, has to avoid the same scenario being repeated, if they go to take part in the Okahandja Election.

More over, Venaani is calling the ECN all sorts of names because, he had lost his seat in the National Assembly.

Well, Venaani is himself to blame. Because, he found himself in the wrong party, a party that was created by Dirk Mudge to fight against SWAPO. Does Venaani think the people of Namibia politically conscious as they are - have forgotten all that? No, and that is what Venaani was supposed to learn to understand why his party is not popular in Namibia.

More over, there is that trend of some leaders of certain political parties who cling to power for too long.

Had the DTA changed the President who was left in the leadership for almost ten years by Mishek Muyongo, situation would probably be different by now, and that Mr Venaani would not have lost his seat in Parliament. Something that made him to be bitter against ECN of Namibia. Perhaps this is time to advice Mr Venaani to divorce DTA and join SWAPO Party if he wish to return to Parliament again.

By Kakede ka Nangula

U.S. President Barack Obama

partner with Iraqis to "promote regional peace and prosperity."

As the war in Iraq is winding down, Obama said the United States is increasing troop level in Afghanistan and training of Afghan Security Forces so they can begin to take the lead in July of 2011, so that U.S. troops can begin to come home that time.

He acknowledged that "there will be difficult days ahead," and the United States will help "reward good governance, reduce corruption" in Afghanistan. He said an international meeting on Afghanistan will take place Thursday in London, during which allies and partners will come together to reaffirm their commitment. (Xinhua) combat troops out of Iraq by the end of this August ... make no mistake, this war is ending, and all of our troops are coming home," he said.

He also promised to support the Iraqi government as Iraqis hold crucial parliamentary elections in March. He said the administration will continue to

All U.S. combat troops out of Iraq by end of August: Obama

WASHINGTON, — U.S. President Barack

Obama said Wednesday in his first State of the Union address

What is given, gets given back.

At the Development Bank of Namibia, we challenge the perception that development is a handout.

By providing finance on excellent terms for sustainable businesses and enterprises which create employment, incomes and infrastructure, we foster development.

And by applying the loan repayments to financing additional businesses and enterprises, while ensuring an excellent record of repayments, we foster the growth of our common future.

Sustainable development is rarely a handout: it is always a hand-up.

Good business is good for development.

Visit www.dbn.com.na for more information. Then call us. + 264 61 290 8000.

How DBN finance has given back to you:

- Permanent jobs
- Temporary jobs
- SME development
- Large enterprise development
- Roads
- Schools
- Medical facilities
- Development of crven
- Low cost houses
- Teacher qualification upgrades

Development Bank of Namibia
Enabling Sustainable Progress

