In support of Ambassador lipumbu –CEO of Agribank of Namibia

By: CJ Kaevarua- Otjiwarongo

Allow me to make use of your esteemed paper to register my support to the CEO of Agribank of Namibia who made a clarion call on farmers to make use of Agribank and stop cancelling their Loans with the Bank ...running to other financial institutions.

(The Namibian-09/08/2010)
It is a well known fact and indeed a distinguishing attribute of Agribank that it offers Products at an affordable, attractive interest rate, well - structured and flexible repayment periods and thus farmers should think twice when considering cancellation of their loans for other financial entities.

On the contrary, this calls for the bank's officials to step up their customer retention strategies by engaging the farmers and their organized Associations through its Sales, Services and Credit, PR and Marketing departments in order guard against that situation.

Farmers should see the Bank as a national vehicle for transformation and empowerment on whose door we could knock for financing in Agriculture or activities related to agriculture.

The Bank's variety of tailored products for the industry is clear testimony of its mission and that of its motto that says

"Your all Season Bank".
