Let’s go vote because your vote counts

By C J Kaevarua (Otiwarongo)

Allow me to drive home a message to all registered voters in our country who are now poised to go in numbers come 26 & 27 November 2010 that voting is indeed one form of participatory democracy and it is therefore imperative that we as registered voters, all take part in this noble exercise.

It is equally important for various contesting political parties to deal with the issue of apathetic electorates by addressing the real bread and butter issues that directly impacts the lives of the people they want and intend to serve. A fatal error that most parties make is the lack of clear cut planned programme of development that seek to improve the lives of the people on the ground coupled with the fact that they mostly forget that they are servants of the people and not vice versa.

To my chosen comrades of SWAPO Party who emerged victorious during the primaries …Congratulations and keep your heads up and let us rally and carry support behind our mighty SWAPO to again emerge victorious during the Regional and Local Authority election in November. The tasks ahead calls for grit and bold determination and true commitment to the people of Namibia while executing your duties. Be the servant of the people (constituency) you are elected to serve. While doing so, we should always draw inspirations from the words of our great revolutionaries, the Founding President, Cde. Dr Sam Nujoma who used to say “United people striving for a common goal shall and will never be defeated”. In pursuit of our victory as a party, we should remain united, focused and true to the ideals of our mighty SWAPO Party.

We ought to always remember that indeed the struggle for independence was long and bitter and hence the freedom we have won 20 years ago must be nurtured, defended and above all be jealously guarded against those who attempt to see it go down the drains.

It is against this background that I call on the rank and file members and other progressive, patriotic Namibians to go out in numbers and to vote for SWAPO PARTY. Councilors during November 2010 Regional and Local Authority elections in order to attain landslide constituency victory.

Let the colors of SWAPO Party radiate in a victory pattern in most constituencies if not in all of them. Let our joy of victory reverberate all over our beloved Namibia, for our victory is certain. SWAPO Party is the beacon light of hope…the only party of yesterday, today and for the future!!

Where others wavered, we stood firm and will firmly do so guided by the spirits of our forerunners like Hosea Kutako, Mandumure Ndamfuyao, Iipunwataja Shilongo, Hendrik Wibbooi, Greenwell Matongo, Mr. Neels van der Merwe, I. M. Nangoloh and many more.

Aluta Continua!!!
Long live SWAPO Party.

Open letter to US President

Dear Mr. President,

The participants to the III African Solidarity meeting with Cuba remember with respect, the emotion and joy that the African Continent has felt on Your election has President of the United States of America.

Mr. President, with Your election, the American People has written a great page of its history, thus declaring to the world that it had definitively abolished racism from America.

The African People and those of the other continents saluted this great historical step, considering it as a victory of the Five Young Cubans who have been tried and convicted by the American Administration, namely: Gerardo Hernandez Nordelo, Rene Gonzalez Sehwerert, Antonio Guerrero Rodriguez, Ramon Labanino Salazar and Fernando Gonzalez Llort.

Confident that this petition shall have your special attention, please accept, Excellency, the expression of our highest consideration.

The participants and invited guests to the III African Solidarity Meeting with Cuba.

Luanda, Republic of Angola, September 12th and 13th 2010

Is Ya Nangoloh normal?

I watched last Wednesday One on One on NBC and I was surprised by the manner in which Phil Ya Nangoloh behaved. Is that how he is? If that is the case, it is a waste of time trying to engage him on serious issues like human rights.

He appears not to know what he is doing, just rumbling and refusing to answer questions. If this is really the Executive Director of the National Society for Human Rights, NSHR, no wonder it compiles poor and unfounded reports.

Who can believe Ya Nangoloh when he says that he “personally” does not know Founding President Dr Sam Nujoma? Yet he has written so much about the man he does not know! Or is someone who personally knows Dr Nujoma writing those dossiers for you, Mr Ya Nangoloh? If you do not know Dr Nujoma, surely you can’t write about him.

If you do, then you are a liar. For, you can’t write about a person you do not know.
