president, but my conscience tells me this reality.

(a murmuring applause followed but was shortlived as Jesaya Nyamu fumed to take the podium)

Jesaya Nyamu: I suffered for the liberation of Namibia, I was a SWAPO freedom fighter now the johnny come late call me all sorts of names, Viva SWAPO (steven mvula of NSHR reminded him by saying Viva RDP). Yes, thank you for the correction, I am angry. We must win, we must win go and tell the people that if they hate RDP they must mark X at RDP at the ballot box or tell them anything and also go to give them free top score so that they vote for us. Do whatever it takes, I must go to Parliament, Hidipo must go to Parliament, this is a betrayal because Omusati Clique has infiltrated us, we are finished and divided. Even Phil yaNangolo has failed now he is writing satire on his website. The media have ignored him completely with only informante and republikein covering him. Who does not know that DMH will soon take over informante newspaper, so it is the same paper. But that boy Max Hamata is good and giving yaNangolo space unlike Kuvee Kanguelhi who is not publishing yaNangolo articles, shame on him. We have become hopeless. (hopeless yes it is true, a voice or two were saying, turns out it was Lapaka Weyulu and Nora Appolus). Lapaka Weyulu: yes RDP is hopeless now, it has lost vision. I suffered for nothing. Oshili. Nora Appolus: RDP never had a vision (that is true another voice thundered from behind, it was that of Nikanor Ndjoze) Nikanor Ndjoze: Now we want to boycott elections because the tender for ballot printing to Namprint, but was it not Hidipo Hamutenya who inaugurated Namprint and it has been successfully printing ballot papers all along. It is stupid to boycott. Look at us now even making too much noise about IPPR predictions, I dont think even Hidipo Hamutenya as of now still has a dream to become President of Namibia. Let us wake up and smell the coffee our opponents are much stronger at all fronts. President Hifikepunye Pohamba will win with more than 2/3 majority and his ruling Party will scoop more than 2/3 majority. It is wishful thinking to expect otherwise (there was some commotion in the audience it turned to Jonathan Cobra who is dying to say something)

Jonathan Cobra: But now SWAPO is threatening to sue me for N$50 million with my fellow self disgraced Phil ya Nangolo. I promised to sue SWAPO website for N$5million. My sources in Swapo Government tell me the lawsuit is real, I want to know whether RDP will financially help, look at all the articles I write in The Namibian newspaper in favour of our failing political business plan. I am happy that the editor Mrs Gwen Lister especially Jean Sutherland and Briggite Weidlich support me in these articles to expose SWAPO negatively. But now I want to know if all this work is worth it? I even wrote that Usko Nghaamwa is a Governor of Omusati Region but it was approved by the editor you see she supports our strategies. I am able to get reliable decisions of Cabinet, it pays to have friends in high places, but does it pay to have friends in RDP who will pay for the N$50 million lawsuit from the vengeful SWAPO Party? I am in trouble....

Hidipo Hamutenya: Viva RDP (there was little response); Viva Mannetjie (there was no response, it turned out that when he said viva RDP he was showing a Swapo salute; and when he said viva mannetjie he made RDP, thus this confusion annoyed the audience...soon he realised and tried to press ahead). What is wrong with you people you seem confused, please vote for me for President of RDP in the upcoming Presidential and National Assembly Elections.

Later on that evening Hidipo Hamutenya was found in the hotel foyer and in the company of Phil yaNangolo and Jesaya Nyamu singing a SWAPO song: SEMMA ULIPENI, and talked to himself but the other two could hear: TA! Swapo is hot mboli man, I never knew. Onda totela shike oRDP? But I cant say it loud because it will be a shame to the RDP members and our Western donors. Then he shouted slowly: VIVA SWAPO, at this point tears rolled down his face. yaNangolo and Nyamu joined in crying just like little babies and yaNangolo kept saying "we must sue SWAPO" how can they humiliate us like that, but I will continue to write on my website a lot of nonsense, but the problem is that there is no internet in the villages or newspapers that is why we shall send our 180 monitors to all villages. Viva America, Viva Germany,

Viva Scandinavian countries and Viva Britain, our true friends and donors
