6. CONCLUSION

Regional development planning is regarded as a tool designed to identify problems at both regional and local levels. The cause of the identified problems is established and discussed with interested groups of people for seeking of solutions. These problems are turned into projects or programs in order to physically address them.

Gunshots heard in northern Abidjan’s district of Yopougon

ABIDJAN, — Gunshots were heard on Thursday morning in northern Abidjan’s district of Yopougon, causing panic among the residents.

The exchange of fire started after 10 a.m. (GMT) in Port-Boeu 2 region, which is a stronghold of Assalho Ooataara within a district that largely supports his presidential candidate Laurent Gbagbo.

The streets were immediately deserted with shops shut down. Xinhua witnessed young men wearing uniforms and car-
