The term “jobs for comrade” in recent years has been thrown all over the minds of members of SWAPO Party. The,Objective: Economic empowerment of the Party

The SWAPO Party has identified the need to empower its members economically. This is part of its broader objective of bringing about socio-economic transformation in Namibia. The ite of the Party to utilize some avenues to empower its members economically.

Some of the avenues include:

- Education and skill development: The Party aims to enhance the education and skills of its members to enable them to access better job opportunities.
- Business and entrepreneurship development: SWAPO has initiated programs to support members in starting businesses and engaging in entrepreneurial activities.
- Job opportunities: The Party is working to create job opportunities for its members, particularly in sectors that are underdeveloped.
- Political representation: SWAPO members are encouraged to participate in political decision-making, thereby increasing their influence and gaining greater rights for their communities.

The Party believes that these strategies will empower its members and contribute to socio-economic transformation in Namibia.

By: Camurada Eliahu Ngepako