“By telling staff members not to show their salaries to one another, The Namibian has managed and sustained those disparities. If those salary structures are revealed in public, people will be shocked by the disparities. I challenge Gwen to reveal those salary structures.”

I wish to congratulate the MIGHTY SWAPO and the people who introduce this cyber for our party, it had been overdue, and I salute you comrades! It is time now to counter all those false and fake information that had been spread around by the Namibian, it was in 2001 where the Namibian had been used to bring chaos wrong information and even insults in the internet, however I am happy that today they are crying fouls because of the introduction of the SWAPO web. Please I encourage you to work hard and update the web, May almighty bless you all, let us prepare for the November election to vote for the Mighty SWAPO PARTY!!!!

There is no difference between RDP and NSHR; they are all the same. RDP wants to vote for Change; NSHR wants to vote for Change: what is the difference? The so-called human rights monitors/defenders are campaign lunatics of RDP, Gwen Lister sticks her head in the sand and does not want to report about these things, yet we are told her paper “Is telling it like it is” or please!

The satire is absolutely the best depiction of reality in the RDP, I wish it has included that once upon a time when Hidipo Hamutenya was cabinet Minister. If someone was given tender by Cabinet, he would directly phone that person and say to him “you know if not for me, Sam Nujoma was not going to give you that tender”. The innocent business person things it to be true and thus become grateful to Hidipo instead of Cabinet. What a shameful political snake!

REPUBLIC OF NAMIBIA

Be still, a great man has passed on.

The Minister, Deputy Minister, Special Advisor, Permanent Secretary, Management and Staff of the Ministry of Information and Communication Technology mourn the loss of a great leader, freedom fighter, liberator and spiritual leader who stood firm against oppression and racial discrimination., and who has left an indelible mark on the Namibian Nation building and reconciliation.

Our thoughts are with his widow, extended family and friends in this time of SORROW.

May you be consoled by the prayer of St Francis of Assisi, which state that “it is through dying that we are born to eternal life”.

May the soul of the late Hero Rev. Dr. Hendrik Witbooi rests in eternal peace.
