I was born in swapo, grew up in swapo and I will die in swapo.... People of Namibia I have some piece of advice to you, if you want to live a better life make sure you vote for Swapo, for peace, freedom and stability..... VIVA SWAPO!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The leadership of Radopa constantly reveals its hypocritical tendencies. At the Radopa rally at Keetmanshoop recently, Radopa deputy leader Bezuidenhout claimed that no development has taken place in Namibia and that Namibia was worse off compared to the pre-colonial times. Eish! Are they blind? Can they really not see the roads which we have built, the clinics, hospitals, schools, railway lines and many other infrastructure which were not there? Do they think that Namibians are not able to see the development which has taken place? The water and electricity in their villages? The many young Namibians who were sent to school, universities and colleges by the SWAPO Party Government? We will not be fooled by their lies. We will vote correctly come the 27th and 28th November 2009. Voting correctly means voting for the SWAPO Party in the National Assembly elections and for Comrade President Hifikepunye Pohamba in the presidential elections. Swapo, united! Swapo victorious! Now, hardwork!

The defeat of Livius Hamutenya and his political project is drawing near. One wonder what are they going to say after their humiliation defeat. We shall defeat them, they even know for sure. The born frees will vote for SWAPO Party of Namibia and Comrade Pohamba on 27-28 November 2009. The cohorts of the likes, of Gwen Lister, Phil ya Nangolo, Max Hamata and Hengari, your defeat is on the way. Your defeat shall be delivered on 27-28 November 2009.SWAPO United, SWAPO Victorious, Now we shall defeat all the pupets with their political projects.

Comrades, You forgot this one, Tanzania, SWAPO 15 Nudo 1 Pobamba 15, Riruako 1 Toatal 16. What a knock out for RDP?

◆ Posted by Cde Mathew Thomas, Swakopmund
Comrades the Born frees go out there on the 27 and 28 December to Vote for Swapo party of Namibia, the party we only trust in Namibia and that brought freedom to our motherland Namibia. By voting for Swapo you secure your peace and stability in the country. Radopa will never lead this country Namibia and other small dogs. Viva Swapo and down Radopa. Radopa have no future in our motherland that we fought for it during the liberation struggle.

Dear Comrades and Compatriots, I attended an event organised by LaRRI at Thuringhof Hotel for a public discussion on poverty and inequality in Namibia. It was last night. All opposition parties were there including Mr. Hidipo Hamutenya himself. The SWAPO Party was represented by Dr. E. Ngurare of our fearless SPYL. I want to thank Dr. Ngurare for his remarks and tell all those opposition parties that come 27 - 28 November 2009, Namibians will vote Cde Pohamba and the SWAPO Party!

We abroad, particularly in Washington DC, did our part on November 13th. Without hesitation, I would like to inform everyone that the overall results from abroad are promising. Now, it is your turn to prepare yourselves mentally and physically to queue in those lines on November 27-28. My big shout out goes to all party members, especially the born freed: "Go and cast your votes!" Make sure that you maintain peace & stability during these elections, as well as in the future. Yes we can... all in the name of the SWAPO Party. NOW, HARD WORK!

VIVA SWAPO CDE LETS GO AND VOTE SWAPO

◆ Posted by Lyakalandja
Comrades, Omusati is region where Swapo was born and grew up. Therefore, it is not a game to say the Outapi is no-go zone for position parties. enjoy the long queue on 27 and 28 November comrades. Viva Swapo, viva Outapi, viva Omusati Region.
