◆ Posted by Cde Kanamutenya, Whk Business is usually, now the oppositions who failed to pay for the courts are again trying to appeal, hewa, what a waste of money and time? If the high court rule out technicality of none compliance, what is going to make a Supreme to Agree with none compliance then? I think some of lawyers are just not advising properly, if the act were not complied with, it is that the Supreme Court will agree with the none compliances or just people want to waste money and time? I am not legal expert, but I think this issue was support to be sealed once and for all and let the people of this country start thinking of the upcoming elections and learn from the previous mistakes if there is any, however I think the oppositions should also know that they are part and parcel of the democratic election process, if in any case something was wrong they must be blamed too because they participated fully had observers everywhere which were support to point out any irregularity as they claim now, why wasting time vakwetu? Is this democracy? If the majority of this country had spoken their decision must be respected period!

us get serious... democracy should not become a circus!

◆ Posted by Shivulitha Shilayi Gwen Lister is a lady in utter political denial. The lady has become so cynically confused such that she has lost any sense of rational political analyses. What if her coalition of losers did not lose the court case, was she not going to celebrate with her pen, writing big headlines and getting excited about democracy in Namibia, as if democracy now only means when her favorites were to win? This politically sick woman must be allowed to go to the nearest Hell. She has become too much predictably hateful of SWAPO and her thinking voters and supporters! She can take her so-called thinking losers with her there and may they all remain there rotting! Sies! Let people celebrate their victories! Gwen Lister, iilonga okusimaneka aantu! And stop smoking so many cigaretes, they are messing you up! That is why you ALSO cannot THINK straight anymore!

Dr A Sheyavali in your letter or RDP public relation letter you are calling your fellow Namibians "Omusati Clique"!!!! Your one finger is point at SWAPO while four fingers are pointing to yourself and Nyamu.

◆ Posted by Kotokeni "Now public money is being used to pay expensive lawyers to defend what is naked injustice. This is unbelievable!" wrote Dr Abisai Sheyavali in The Namibian of Friday. Dr you are WRONG!!! THE EXPENSIVE LAWYERS WILL BE PAID BY RADOPA AND HIS COMPANY - PLEASE HELPTHEM BY CONTRIBUTING TO THEIR BANK ACCOUNT AS FROM NEXT WEEK MONDAY.

◆ Posted by Cde Shasimana Ugulu The notes never worked, the illusions never materialised, the court challenge never paid off, Hidipo should be regretting the day he said SWAPO has collapsed because the opposite is actually true. SWAPO that emerged after his departure is more unified, determined and hard working. Justice have been served!!!!!!!!!!!!Aluta continua

◆ Posted by CDE FLAVIO Comrades, allow me a space on this platform to comment briefly on the comment by Gwen in the local newspaper. There is something fundamental need to be understood, if you fail to win the election through the ballot boxes then forget wining election through court. After November election she say those who voted SWAPO Party are non-thinkers and after the verdict she continue saying that we have rather missed the point and supposed not to celebrate but in brief she is in fact miss the point. In fact she should start respect the Namibian people and their aspirations. She still seems not to believe in anything but pretend to believe in democracy. Does that means democracy only exist when all go her favour or what is she trying to say. She should not underestimate the will of the mass of the Namibian people. In any election you find people with different opinion and the losers will be just losers and no one will feel sympathy for their ill decision. Nevertheless, the SWAPO Government had, has and will always represent the Namibian people irrespective of their association. If Madam does not believe in the outcome of election and court verdict then tough luck for her maybe the least she can do is to believe in justice that is the best thing she can do. In terms of unemployment, I would like the madam to give this nation her statistic evaluation on employment before 1990 and after 1990 to date so that we can compare apple with apple and employment during her ancestors' regime. Unemployment is not an overnight assignment but it is part and parcel of vision 2030. If we are honest enough we should clear see that in the New Namibia, many are slowly integrated in the economy sector of this country. I think Madam has wasted much of her time thinking negative side of the big picture and it is an unfortunate to her. Whether we like it or not the only people who change this country is the MASS of the Namibian nation but not a group of individuals who want to see Namibia the way the

Dear Cde...technically they didn't have a case.....legally they didn't have evidence to support their lies.....Dec 2009 they want to. (.....)Thanks to our vigilant Chief Cde. Ngurare, Cde Kapia and team.. the RADOPA plan didn't work.....I actually enjoy that week at the government stores, you should have seen how desperate they were...I salute our team of Dec 2009 in the name of SWAPO.....!!!!

A nation fighting together for a common purpose can never, will never and shall never be defeated but always emerge victorious. That is a rule, not an exception. The SWAPO Party resolves, patience (immense patience), respect for the rule of law has once again prevailed. I gave my respect to the entire Party Leadership for the cool heads they portrayed throughout, we take coqnisance of that. Congratulations seems so trivial but for the lack of a better word, VIVA SWAPO VIVA!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
