Comrades, I salute you all in the spirit of forward ever and back ward never. We all know that when it comes to certain individuals, anything SWAPO does will never be good enough. This are the same people who were never our friends and probably never will. This enemies of our country fought against the liberation of Namibia along the notorious kovoet which committed atrocities to our people. Today they continue to fight against the economic emuncipation of our beloved country. They preach democracy during the day and at night they work tireless to plot all the evil deeds one can imagine. This are the same people who claim to be human rights activities, investigative journalists and all sort of fake self given titles. We all know what their agenda is and they should be warned that we will never ever allow our hard won independence to be spoiled. Viva the founding father, President Pohamba, Viva all the dedicated leadership of the SWAPO party.

I have never been so dissappointed in The Namibian newspaper until I read the rubbish John Grobler wrote in it yesterday (Friday 18 September 2009). This explains why CNN and MISA gave him awards, it shows that these institutions reward failed and racist journalists like Jonathan Cobra. Shame on you Gwen Lister, it shows your interest liesL in RDP and Europe!

Taxi drivers this year protested against affixation of a taxi sign to the roof of the vehicles. The Namibian newspaper on Friday, 31 July had this to say: "Taxi Industry Must Toe The Line", THERE is a clear need for the regulation of taxis in the public interest", "Namibia does not have to reinvent the wheel when it looks at the regulation of this industry, for it is something that happens in most countries of the world", "We believe that if the law requires such signs, then this must be adhered to by the owners of taxis, for it is both in their own interests as well as those of commuters. "There are those who would argue that it is costly to paint and affix signs, but it must be remembered that taxis are a business, and as such, should be expected to comply with regulations or forfeit their licence to transport members of the public who pay for the service." These same arguments must be clear to Ms Gwen & co. who opposes the interception clause in the Communication Bill!

SWAPO of Namibia will always be united...and as the line goes "One Namibia One Nation". SWAPO is for all Namibians and all Namibians are SWAPOs. SWAPO the Only authentic Party that We Trust or one can say a political "Home" For All Namibians. Nice weekend to all peace loving jingoistic Namibians.

"During the bitter and glorious liberation struggle, we rightly predicted that "when the history of a free and independent Namibia is written one day, SWAPO will go down as having stood firm, where others have wavered, that it sacrificed for the sacred cause of liberation, where others have compromised." Today we are armed with the same fortitude, hope and determination to free ourselves from the shackles of hunger, disease, ignorance and poverty. Our forefathers and martyrs of the land of the brave have sacrificed in order for Namibia to be independent, sovereign and free. We therefore re-commit ourselves to work as hard as possible in order to fulfill these ideals. We have transformed from a vanguard liberation movement to a seasoned political Party with the ability, focus and human capital to responsibly manage change and accommodate new ideas. The SWAPO Party will, through hard work, continue to facilitate hope and opportunities for ALL Namibians." By Dr. Abraham Iyambo (Chairman of the SWAPO PARTY Think Tank)

Grobler is just a poor former kovoet member, who concentrated on his brutal career of his munderous gang, while other rejected to join. We know many Namibians who perished at the hands of kovoet, Cobra need to be chased out of our country.
