“Cobra” in regard to the NWR is indeed preposterous. Why have drawings bearing the names of the SWAPO Party, refer to the Secretary-General of the Party, and the SPYL whilst the rest of the accompanying article does not implicate those institutions and person. Is this misconstrued media freedom or some kind of madness on the part of The Namibian Newspaper and the not-so-clever snake. Irresponsible reporting and publishing will never succeed because the people are bound to see through the thick lies of the prophets of doom. I salute those who are working towards ensuring that the majority of the Namibian people are allowed and encouraged to become economically productive, period. The maintenance of the status quo, whereby the minority owns the largest share of our productive assets is no longer an option, as it is both unacceptable and unsustainable. Viva

SWAPO!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

“President Pohamba said that for those who did not make it in the electoral college, there is always next time. And he said we are all winners. This is SWAPO Party victory. Let us celebrate it, instead of becoming victims of the Jonas Savimbi’s political syndrome of “either I win or the elections are not free and fair.” RDP’S Hidipo Hamutenya tried to experiment that syndrome and look at where he is today – a pathetic political wreck of his former self.” Asser Ntinda you are a genius writer, I salute Zoom in.
