

Ya Nangoloh crosses swords with Ntinda

Dear Asser I have obtained the story below and I need obtain your 'side of the story' in connection therewith: "On Saturday, 26 June 2010, at approximately 18h00 Swapo Party journalist Asser Ntinda was allegedly asked by an eyewitness whether or not 'his friend' is OK. Ntinda asked the eyewitness 'who's my friend'. After he was told it is Mr. Phil ya Nangoloh, Ntinda allegedly responded something to the effect: "Oshipolopolo shono? Moshilongo muka itamu kala ombili manga shi na omwenyo kaya. Kuwete kutya meendelelo mwAngola omwe ya ombili shoSavimbi a dhipagwa". This is Oshiwambo vernacular for: "That troublemaker?"

There will be no peace in this country as long as he is alive. Peace immediately came to Angola after Savimbi's death". The above remarks allegedly by Ntinda were understood to mean that NSHR Executive Director Phil ya Nangoloh is regarded at least by Ntinda as a threat to the peace and security of Namibia. Hence, according to Ntinda, peace will only come to Namibia after ya Nangoloh's death. Ntinda allegedly made those murderous remarks at his Bar and Food business at or near Stall no.17 adjacent to Sheya Café within Uutala waLibertine at the Single Quarters in Katutura."

Regards
P. ya Nangoloh

I missed the Lecture by the Founding Father. I hope someone recored it audio-visually, where would that be available - youtube? I, however, managed to visit the Exhibition at the National Art Gallery. Super stuff! That made me more and truly proud of SWAPO and its powerful legacy and patriotic history! Viva Swapo Viva!

Dear Comrades, a crocodile tears article written by Libolly Haufiku a former Marketing Manager of EPZ and now a RDP member that appeared in Windhoek Observer, Saturday, 26 June 2010 & Die Republiek Tuesday, 29 June 2010 about Omusati Clique &

Omusatization of Namibia Government. The so-called research article of Libolly Haufiku is inaccurate, shameful and misleading the people of Namibia. There are similarity in the so-called research article of Libolly Haufiku and the previous articles authored by the man of God, Dr. Shejavali. Both articles labelled all Kwambis occupied highest positions in Government and Parastatals being from Omusati region. Perhaps Libolly Haufiku should visit Omusati Regional Council to be briefed about the borders of Omusati region and other regions or visit the Ministry of Regional and Local Governments and Housing and Rural development to learn about the the regions borders. It seems Libolly Haufiku is getting bored, therefore writing the so-called research article to get attention to the people of Namibia. The people rejected Libolly and his RDP in November 2009 Elections. We shall reject Libolly and his RDP in the coming Local Authority Elections. Viva SWAPO, Aluta Cotinua!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

It was really an inspiring public lecture by H.E. Dr Sam Nujoma yesterday in WHK, as he took us through history of the country, particularly about the past experiences of our forefathers, the bitter and heroic struggle waged by Namibians against foreign invasion and colonial occupation and the exploitation of human and natural resources of Namibia.

IS THERE TRIBALISM IN NAMIBIA OR SPECIFICALLY IN GOVERNMENT AND THE RULING PARTY SWAPO: WHAT IS YOUR HONEST OPINION?

◆ Nankali Jossy
Not at all!

◆ Jesaya Ashipala
Yes there is from people to people, you can meet a person and you can figure it out that this person is full of tribalism. Even though its not transparent... Not in our ruling party but in the country/individual people.

Very sad and discouraging but yes, it is there.

◆ Tsabang Telukhunoana

I was in Namibia for 1 week but I sensed tribalism. I was annoyed by the fact that there is no official indigenous language. I suggested that Omake should be the official language but sum1 told me dat swapo is led by people who speak omake and it wud be unfair 4 Herero and people from Caprivi. so i can say namibians feel people who speak omake (clap) are dominating. i ... See Morethink da pres of swapo nd DP(dr hage) speak omake. its up 2 u 2 c how u empower ada tribes. at least u dont fight nd u shudnt PLS. tribe dasnt matter "da world is my country, da human race is my brethren nd 2 do gud is my religion

◆ Alex Anguuo

Individual yes.. bt not my party n my government..

◆ Kela Iiyambo

Whilst there may be tribalistic tendency in individuals, perhaps in some organisations too, this are really isolated cases. The truth is evry Namibian has an equal opportunity to b wat they want to...! I luv Namibia.

...tendencies

◆ Annelien Nonnoz Van Wyk

My honest opinion is that tribalism is in Namibia, in Government and the ruling party SWAPO as a result of individuals being part of the country, GRN and ruling party. You get tribalism everywhere, even in the homes of mixed tribes marriage couples.

I share the view like Cdes Kela, Alex and Jesaya that tribalism is an individual tendency but not the country, government or its ruling party SWAPO. It is also true that

The disgraced Executive Director of the National Society for Human Rights, NSHR, Phil Ya Nangoloh, is at it again, claiming that he is a "threat to peace and security" in this country and that he is about to be "assassinated." It is all his old arguments which he has never been able to prove. But it is good that he will soon be in court to answer to those claims. And the nation will be happy to see him being named and shamed for all to see. For, we know that there is no "hit list."

The latest twist to his so called "threat to peace and security in Namibia" came through his cousin. It has now obviously emerged that Ya Nangoloh has sent his cousin to solicit "some comments" from me to validate his long-held claim that he is a "threat to peace and security" in Namibia and that he should be "assassinated." We have published his letter verbatim for all to see. What is more interesting this time is that Ya Nangoloh has the audacity to send his cousin to me last week to solicit some comments from me about his fate and his so called "threat to peace and security" in this country and that he should be "assassinated" so that "peace could prevail" in Namibia. Interesting still, he calls his cousin an "eye witness," where as the man is his biological cousin. As I have said, do not call your cousin an "eyewitness," call him your informer. Simeon Andreas Joseph Nuumbembe, is your direct biological cousin. He is a serving soldier in the Namibian Defence Force, NDF. You have now confirmed that he is one of your sources in the NDF who has helped you compile some of the notorious statements you have issued regarding your fate as a so called "human rights activist."

Simeon conspicuously and very surprisingly approached me on Saturday last week, claiming that he was "disgusted by and ashamed of" Ya Nangoloh's activities. He told me that the whole family (ezimo alihe) was ashamed of Ya Nangoloh's unbecoming behavior and notorious activities. He said that everywhere he and every relative went, they were "shamed and shunned like dogs with rabies" because of Ya Nangoloh's "unacceptable behavior."

I told Simeon that he should not worry as Ya Nangoloh's behavior and activities were not going to be linked to the whole family. I also told him that he should be his own man, and his deeds would clear his name. True, he asked me how my "friend" was. I asked him which friend he was talking about. He said Phil Ya Nangoloh. I told him that Ya Nangoloh was not my friend. Ya Nangoloh knows that he is not my friend. Our paths have never crossed and will never cross.

At no point did we talk about Ya Nangoloh being a "threat to peace and security" in this country. For, you know you are not and you will never be a threat to peace and security in this country. You are just a public nuisance who causes no harm at all. In fact, people look at you more as a cartoon that makes people laugh than a serious entity.

Who really cares about what you say? What you say has no impact whatsoever in the greater scheme of events in this country. After all, you have been making those claims for the past 20 years and nothing has happened to you. You are a failed and disgusting "human rights activist," at all if you were one in the first place.

The good thing about your recent email to me is that you have successfully exposed one of your informers in the NDF. That is great. At least now we know who we are dealing with. Any NDF member pandering to your nonsense and supplying you with false information purported to mean that you would be "assassinated" is dangerous. Your cousin has put the NDF's reputation at stake. For, the NDF does not and will never draw up a "hit list."

We are in a democracy where everybody's life is guaranteed and protected by the Constitution and state institutions. Simeon, your cousin, has simply exhibited himself as a pathological liar as you are. The fact that he is an NDF soldier makes it even worse. Your remark that "peace will only come to Namibia after Ya Nangoloh's death" is even despicable. Namibia is peaceful and stable. It has been so since independence. You have been around since independence. No better peace will come after your death. We already enjoy sufficient peace and stability. I know that you want to be known through spurious allegations. The fact that you soaked up your cousin's lies like a sponge speaks volumes about your credibility.

The "hit list" you want to be in will never come into being. No amount of bad-mouthing by you will cause anyone to draw it up. For, you are worthless as a person and as a "human rights activist." That same fate will befall your cousin. You will be booted and shunned wherever you go. You reap what you have sown. And you are doing exactly that.
